

MUR 5250

Complainants: Larry Klayman, Chair and General Counsel of Judicial Watch
Thomas Fitton, President of Judicial Watch

Respondents: Congressman Tom Davis
Congressman Tom Delay
Congressman Bill Thomas
Congressman Porter Goss
National Republican Congressional Committee and Donna Anderson, as Treasurer
Maria Cino, Department of Energy
Dan Brouillette, Department of Energy
Robert Wood, Department of Health and Human Services
Tom Scully, Center for Medicaid & Medicare Services
Nicholas E. Calio, Asst. to the President for Legislative Affairs

Allegations: Complainants, Larry Klayman and Thomas Fitton, representing Judicial Watch, alleged that various named members of the House of Representatives and Bush administration officials, along with the cooperation of the National Republican Congressional Committee ("NRCC"), are promising meetings and briefings with administration officials in exchange for contributions to the NRCC (operating under the title "NRCC Economic Recovery Workshop"). The complainants also allege that the meetings and the cost of the meetings are contribution offsets and should have been reported as such under 2 U.S.C. § 434(b).
